

The Fairfield Department of Health

Mercury Fact Sheet

Ohio EPA Mercury in the Household

Mercury Spills Fact Sheet

Small Mercury Spills Fact Sheet

Mercury Clean-Up Kit

Mercury Exposure - Tartan Brand Polymer Flooring

Home • Bed Bugs • Food Protection • Indoor Air Quality • Lot Splits • Mosquitoes • Nuisances • Plumbing • Pools & Healthy Swimming • Rabies • Sewage • Solid & Infectious Waste • Tattoo Facilities • Ticks • Water Wells

Mercury

Mercury is a persistent bioaccumulative toxic metal that is widely used in many products. Once mercury is released into the environment its toxicity, persistence and ability to travel up the food chain are important issues for human health and the environment.

For more information visit the Ohio EPA

Mercury Collection and Recycling

Ohio Sport Fish Health Advisory Web Site

The Fairfield Department of Health
1587 Granville Pike | Lancaster, Ohio 43130
P:(740) 652-2800 | F:(740) 653-6626

Privacy Policy